

Damage Prevention Education Workshops, 2011

Presenters' Bios

- Collens Wakefield, Executive Director, One-Call of Wyoming, August 2009 -- present
Wakefield's career encompassed thirty-six years in the Natural Gas Industry, from working in the field to supervising in Gas Operations. He also served his IBEW local as negotiator-at-large, executive board member, vice president and president/business manager. He served four years on the Board of Directors of One-Call of Wyoming.

- Mark Ransdell, President, Board of Directors, One-Call of Wyoming
Questar Pipeline Company, Manager Western Operations & Overthrust Pipeline
 - Worked 18 years in Construction, as Supervisor for 12 of these years;
 - Completion of capital projects and maintenance of equipment in gathering, transportation and storage operations; pipeline, measurement, processing and compression;
 - Worked 5 years as Supervisor in Human Resources Department;
 - Worked 12 years in Pipeline Operations Management, operating the pipeline system;
 - Major responsibilities: Manage system operations for the transportation and storage of natural gas on Questar Pipeline's System including: compressor stations, gas processing, gas quality and measurement equipment, and pipeline facilities;
 - Lead or participate with groups for Standard Practices, Operator Qualification, Emergency Response, Employee Training, Damage Prevention, Incident Investigation, Integrity Management;
 - Chairman, Uinta County Pipeline Association since 2002;
 - Board President One-Call of Wyoming since 2007;
 - Served on the Board of Directors for One-Call of Wyoming since August of 2001.