ARTICLE XI – INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Good Faith Actions The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as an officer, agent, or representative in another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, including attorneys' fees, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Exclusion for Negligence or Misconduct No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought or another court of competent jurisdiction shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Fees and Expenses To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2 above, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees.

Section 4. Coverage Determined by Board of Directors Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article XII, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 and 2. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the majority vote of the General Members of the Corporation.

Section 5. Advance Payment for Fees and Expenses Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in a specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount, in effect until it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article XII.

Section 6. Nonexclusive Remedy The indemnifications provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of General Members, or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 7. Insurance The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of the status of such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article XII.

ARTICLE XII – AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be altered or repealed, or new Bylaws may be adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors at any annual, regular, or special meeting duly convened after proper notice to the directors setting out the purpose of the meeting, subject to the power of the General Members to alter or repeal such Bylaws; provided, however, the Board shall not adopt or alter any Bylaw fixing the number, qualifications, classifications, or terms of office of the directors, but any such Bylaw may be adopted or altered only by the majority vote of a quorum of the General Members at any annual, regular, or special meeting duly convened after proper notice to the General Members setting out the purpose of the meeting.

ARTICLE XIII - FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on the first day of January of each year and end on the last day of December of that year.

ARTICLE XIV - SEAL

The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, adopt and approve a corporate seal for the Corporation.

ARTICLE XV - DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, the assets hereof shall be applied and distributed as provided by the statutes applicable to public benefit non-profit Wyoming corporations. Any discretion allowed in such statutes shall be exercised by the Board of Directors.
